H.B. No. 100

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

2 relating to curriculum requirements in political science and 3 American history at institutions of higher education.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

5 SECTION 1. Section 51.301(a), Education Code, is amended to 6 read as follows:

7 (a) Every college and university receiving state support or 8 state aid from public funds shall give a course of instruction in 9 government or political science which includes consideration of the 10 Constitution of the United States and the constitutions of the 11 states, with special emphasis on that of Texas. This course shall 12 have a credit value of not less than three [~~six~~] semester hours or 13 its equivalent. Except as provided by Subsection (c), a college or 14 university receiving state support or state aid from public funds
15 may not grant a baccalaureate degree or a lesser degree or academic 16 certificate to any person unless the person has credit for such a 17 course. The college or university may determine that a student has 18 satisfied this requirement in whole or in part on the basis of 19 credit granted to the student by the college or university for a 20 substantially equivalent course completed at another accredited
21 college or university or on the basis of the student's successful 22 completion of an advanced standing examination administered on the 23 conditions and under the circumstances common for the college or 24 university's advanced standing examinations. The college or

1 university may grant as much as three semester hours of credit or 2 its equivalent toward satisfaction of this requirement for 3 substantially equivalent work completed by the student in the 4 program of an approved senior R.O.T.C. unit.

5 SECTION 2. Section 51.302(b), Education Code, is amended to 6 read as follows:

7 (b) Except as provided by Subsection (c), a college or
8 university receiving state support or state aid from public funds
9 may not grant a baccalaureate degree or a lesser degree or academic 10 certificate to any person unless the person has credit for three 11 [~~six~~] semester hours or its equivalent in American History. A 12 student is entitled to submit as much as three semester hours of 13 credit or its equivalent in Texas History toward [~~in partial~~] 14 satisfaction of this requirement. The college or university may 15 determine that a student has satisfied this requirement in whole or 16 part on the basis of credit granted to the student by the college or 17 university for a substantially equivalent course completed at 18 another accredited college or university, or on the basis of the 19 student's successful completion of an advanced standing 20 examination administered on the conditions and under the 21 circumstances common for the college or university's advanced 22 standing examinations. The college or university may grant as much 23 as three semester hours of credit or its equivalent toward 24 satisfaction of this requirement for substantially equivalent work
25 completed by a student in the program of an approved senior R.O.T.C.
26 unit.

27 SECTION 3. The changes in law made by this Act to Sections

1 51.301(a) and 51.302(b), Education Code, apply only to the 2 curriculum requirements for a degree or certificate awarded by an 3 institution of higher education on or after the effective date of 4 this Act. The curriculum requirements for a degree or certificate
5 awarded by an institution of higher education before the effective
6 date of this Act are governed by the law in effect immediately
7 before that date, and the former law is continued in effect for that 8 purpose.

9 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect September 1, 2009.
